The first monthly part of the new issue of Every Saturday, in which this number is comprised, has just been published.

New Publications.

POSTPONEMENT.
In consequence of the very large advance orders the publication of
GEORGE MACDONALD'S GREAT STORY,

WILFRID CUMBERMELDE, is postponed until next week.

The Journal of Commerce says of Wilfrid Cumbermelle: It is simple, natural, poetic, and plotted to turn interesting in plot, and development of character, and written in such lucid English as it does not good to meet with.

Wilfrid Cumbermelle will be issued in a large 12mo, of over 500 pages, handsomely bound in black and gilt, and will contain 14 full-page illustrations, making it one of the handsomest and cheapest books lately published. Price $1.50. Single copies sent post-paid, upon receipt of price, by the publishers.

THE HERALD ALMANAC, Price 25 cents, FIRST GREAT ISSUE FOR 1872, will surpass every work under the name of Almanac ever heretofore published.

This issue of over 200 pages, each replete with most interesting and valuable information, contains the whole year's work.

Almanacs are usually superseded.

The Almanac of the Herald Almanac may be freely communicated as far back as 1868, for those few years, giving the names of almanacs, their dates, and rates of delivery.

THE FINANCIAL GUIDE will have deep and special interest for all the commercial community, for owners and captives of vessels and for all seamen—indeed, to those it will be invaluable in pointing out and aiding the daily duties of their calling.

It is also of great interest to all who travel by water, for the changes and news necessary on the chart of the most distant seas as reported from the American, Parisian, Washington, and Trinity Home Lines, and the post-packets.

In this issue a clear and concise section of

will be specially interested for the purpose, to whom it will be a subject of constant and most useful reference, as well as with other masters, the time and place of landing ports with the names of the Judges, through the entire voyage.

POLITICAL REPORTS will give the daily sensations throughout the year of the different events in the States and Territories, the political movements of the various State Legislatures, the financial status of the several State Governments, the financial condition of the Government, the names of the members of the House and Senate, all the proceedings of the present Chief Magistrate, the names recent appointments to the Cabinet, the names of the members of the High Court, the trials of the Presidents, the trials of the Generals, the trials of the Admirals, the trials of the Generals connected with the Geneva Conference with the Great Britain and American Commissions, and the Mexican and Spanish Commissions, the trials of the Admirals, the trials of the Admirals, the trials of the Admirals, and foreign Ambassadors, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls in the United States, etc., where located, date of Custom-House Collectors, etc., date of the trials, the names of the Courts, the names of the Circuit Justices and of the Presidents from the formation of the Government to the present time, with the date for all the Presidents from Washington to Grant.

FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS will be given in detail, with the names of the heads of the various governments, the names of the ministers, and the names of the various departments.

THE HERALD ALMANAC is given in the New Standard Series of the United States, together with Preliminary Notices of Almanacs (whether the New York Almanac, the Boston Almanac, the Philadelphia Almanac, &c.), the newly-discovered Scientific and Popular Language, resulting from the Principals of the New Testament (the) "Miracles and Prophecies," and the Great Compendium, etc.
